Location : Delhi, India
It is a monumental archway honoring the soldiers who sacrificed their lives in World War I and the Anglo-Afghan Wars, and serves as a prominent symbol of national pride and remembrance.

CHARACTERS
DELHI

delh_char_01
Ghagra choli (Delhi Woman)
The ghagra choli worn by women in Delhi is a traditional yet vibrant ensemble consisting of a long, flowing skirt (ghagra), paired with a fitted blouse (choli), and often accompanied by a dupatta. This attire, adorned with intricate embroidery, mirror work, or sequins, blends cultural heritage with modern fashion trends, making it a popular choice for festivals, weddings, and special occasions in the city.

delh_char_02
Dhoti Kurta (Delhi Man)
Wrapped around the hips and thighs with one end brought between the legs and tucked into the waistband. The ensemble reflects a sense of respect and reverence for the customs and traditions passed down through generations. The Dhoti Kurta is also associated with spirituality and purity.

CHARACTERS
DELHI

Baggy Outfit
(Delhi GenZ boy)
Comfortable, relaxed clothes, such as large sweatshirts, baggy pants, and loose-fitting t-shirts, dominate Gen Z fashion.

darj_char_04
Skirt and Boots (Delhi GenZ Girl)
An Indian Gen Z girl's outfit might feature a chic high-waisted pleated skirt paired with a cropped tee, complemented by trendy ankle boots.

ANIMALS
DELHI

delh_anim_01
Monkey
The Indian monkey, typically the Rhesus macaque, is a medium-sized primate with a reddish-brown coat, expressive face, and agile limbs, commonly found in forests and urban areas across India.

delh_anim_02
Peacock
It symbolizes beauty and grace; its vibrant plumage and courtship dance are admired in the city's gardens and parks, adding to the rich biodiversity of the region.

FOLIAGE
DELHI

delh_foli_03
Banyan tree
The banyan trees are iconic for their expansive canopies and aerial roots, providing shade and habitat for various wildlife, while also symbolizing strength and resilience in the city's urban landscape.
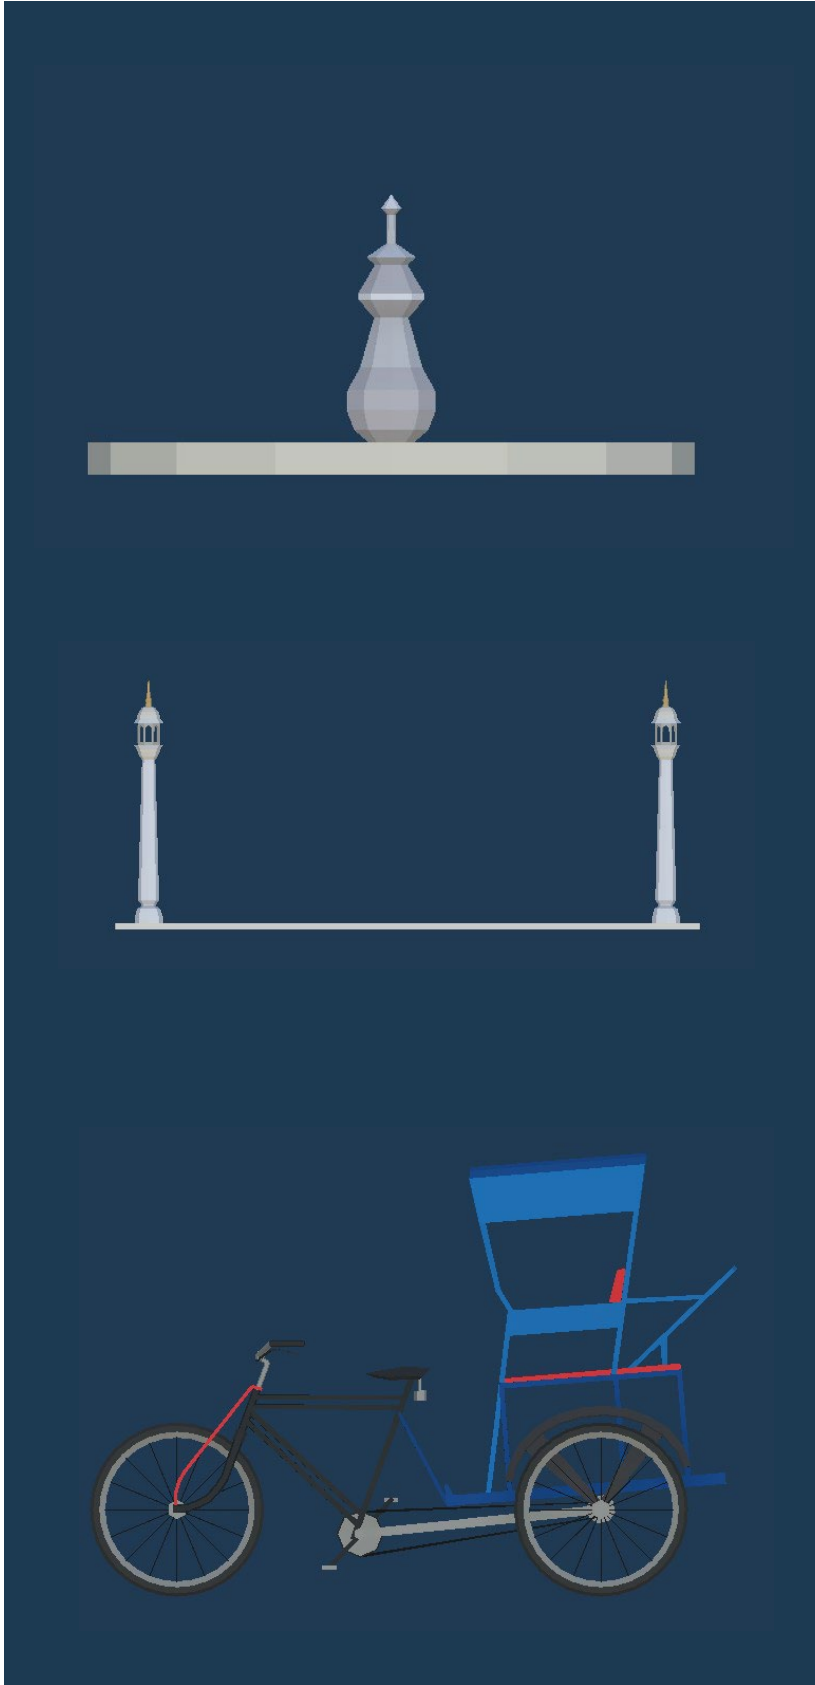

delh_foli_06
Amaltas Tree
The Amaltas tree, also known as the Golden Shower tree, is renowned for its bright yellow flowers that bloom in clusters during the summer.

PROPS
DELHI

delh_prop_01
Taj Mahal fountain Structure
The Taj Mahal's fountain structure features a central marble platform with a series of symmetrical water channels and fountains, enhancing the monument's serene and reflective ambiance.

delh_prop_02
Jama Masjid Ablution Pond
The ablution pond is a water feature designed for ritual purification before prayers, surrounded by the mosque's stunning architecture, and serving as a tranquil space for reflection and devotion among worshippers.

delh_prop_03
Cycle Rickshaw
The cycle rickshaw in India is a three-wheeled, pedal-powered vehicle, commonly used for short-distance transport, featuring a cushioned passenger seat at the back and a colorful, often decorated canopy.
